Western Sydney Manufacturing Week

Invitation Celebrating Women in Manufacturing Producing the goods

Following on from the inaugural Women in Manufacturing event during the 2005 program, women business owners and executives of manufacturing companies are invited to attend this lunch to celebrate the contribution women have made to innovation in Australian manufacturing.

Keynote speaker Narelle Kennedy, CEO Australian Business Foundation, will preview the Foundation's forthcoming study, with the University of Queensland, on innovation in Australian manufacturing. Developed by Professor Mark Dodgson and Dr Peter Innes, the study is part of a wider international comparison. This event is sure to challenge your perceptions and directions.
