

Contents

Acknowledgements	VII
List of Figures	VIII
1 Introduction	1
1.1 The United Nations Security Council	6
1.2 Accountability	12
1.3 Towards (Greater) Security Council Accountability	15
2 Security Council Productiveness &amp; Accountability	27
2.1 Productiveness	27
2.2 Reform	33
2.3 Accountability	36
2.4 Powers for a Purpose	46
3 Why should the Security Council Be Accountable?	51
3.1 Case Example: Implementing Article 43	55
3.2 Understanding Productiveness	60
3.3 Accountability v Reporting	70
3.4 Accounting for Productiveness	75
4 To Whom Should the Security Council Be Accountable?	83
4.1 Case Example: UN Membership	89
4.2 Source of Powers and Those Affected	102
4.3 Who Aids Council Productiveness?	109
5 For What Should the Security Council Be Accountable?	117
5.1 Case Example: The Security Council's Agenda	123
5.2 Deciding What Matters	132
5.3 Mattering by Results	143
5.4 What Matters in Being Accountable?	156
5.5 Mattering More	161
6 How Could the Council Be Made More Accountable?	167
6.1 Case Example: Responding to the Use of Force	175
6.2 Case Examples: Lifting the Veil on the Council	193
6.2.1 Could the Erio Have Helped Timor Sooner?	196

6.2.2	Eto Initiative on the 1267 Ombudsperson	200
6.2.3	Eto Influence and Civil Society	210
6.3	Answering Accountability Questions	215
7	The Council's Call: Hercules or Sisyphus?	218
7.1	A Scheme for Security Council Accountability	219
7.2	Modelling Accountability in a 'Future-scape'	228
7.3	Navigating between Naïveté and Cynicism	247
	Index	255